

Religious Education Secondary Network Virtual meeting via Zoom

Free to secondary schools
(Booking essential)

Thursday 15th October 2020 1600-1730

Aims and content

This twilight session is offered to support colleagues teaching RE in secondary schools in our region. It will be an opportunity to share resources, problems, solutions and strategies for teaching of RE in the present time. Access to a wide range of resources, ideas and updates will also be provided. But please bring any of yours too!

The session will:

- Provide networking opportunity for RE secondary RE teachers
- Share resources for use on-line as well as in the classroom
- Discuss strategies and ideas for use in the present situation
- Act as a surgery for any curriculum or other related issues

This will be an online meeting using Zoom. Booked participants will be advised of joining details and the meeting website reference nearer the date. It is not necessary to have a Zoom account to join the meeting.

Facilitator

Alastair Ross, RE adviser.

Who is it for?

Secondary RE teachers and subject leads

Bookings and questions

Email Alastair Ross alastair@penninelearning.com

Phone 07946-722860

You can contact us at any time – or book a slot for a longer discussion

Don't forget you can contact us at any time with a query or question. If you would like longer to discuss an aspect of RE leadership, teaching or curriculum we are happy to book a slot and meet by phone, Zoom or email.

Alastair Ross (secondary), Ian Ross and Helen Rivers (primary)

Email enquiries@penninelearning.com