

Primary: Religious Education subject leader network

A network for new and existing RE subject leaders

Outline

The RE network offers a combination of training, updates and networking to support RE teachers and coordinators at primary phase. The sessions include resources to use in school, practical activities linked to the RE syllabus, guidance and opportunities to share ideas and good practice.

Description

Networks include teaching and learning ideas, news and resources for schools. The spring session will include a focus on how to promote diversity through RE, including suggestions for RE-related projects that will also promote fundamental values.

Outcome

The course will support the knowledge, confidence and resources for RE teachers in the primary phase, provide ideas and resources locally and nationally and offer the chance to share good practice
