

Creative and Thoughtful RE for 4 – 11 Year-Olds
A day conference for primary teachers of RE
13th October 2021
Via Zoom
09:00 – 15:45

Presented by Lat Blaylock (RE Today)

The conference will include numerous ready-to-use ideas for thoughtful and creative RE activities based around Christianity, Islam, Sikhism and Judaism. These teaching and learning ideas will encourage creative and engaging RE that develops deep thinking skills and enables good progression in learning. This will be ideal to support teachers using the local agreed syllabus 'Believing and Belonging'.

Programme for the day:

Session One: Better thinking, better creativity, better RE!

Session Two: KS1 RE: practical ideas to demonstrate good standards for 4-7s (Focus on Christianity and Islam)

Session Three: Primary RE: developing pupils' thinking for depth, imagination and rich learning (Focus on Sikhism and Judaism)

Session Four: 'An ambitious curriculum' Setting sights high for improving RE.

Who is it for?

RE Coordinators and Teachers of RE.

Cost: Free conference provided by Calderdale SACRE.

Contact Details

For further information on this event, please contact Ian Ross on enquiries@penninelearning.com